CONTRACT LET FOR BLAIRMORE ARENA

To Cost Complete in the Neighborhood of $11,000.

The contract for the building of the Blairmore Arena was finally let on Tuesday morning of this week, the successful tender being that of our local contractor, E. J. Pozzi, whose figure is $10,725.00, to include building complete with water and electric installation.

The plans and specifications call for a structure as follows:

The skating rink is to be 75 by 176 feet, with ten-foot bleachers around same, except at the east end, which is to have three rows of bleachers and a four-foot walk, making the outside measurement of skating and curling rink building 148½ by 199 feet by fourteen feet in height under trusses; the total height being approximately thirty feet. The curling rink will have two two-foot walks dividing three standard-sized sheets of ice, curlers' entrance room 4 by 43 feet, all with plank floor. The manager's office will be 10 by 10 feet, the ladies' dressing room 10 by 20 feet, home-team dressing room 11 by 15 feet, gent's dressing room 16 by 30 feet, passage to rink from waiting room seven feet wide, office 3 by 6 feet, all with plank floors. There will be concrete piers under trusses at corners of building.

The rink when completed will be second to none in the province in size and general outlay and equipment.

MUST CALL DISTRICT MEETING TO ELECT NEW OFFICERS OR WILL BE RECALLED

The officers of the U. M. W. of A. have until November 21st to call a district meeting to elect new officers or they will be recalled. This was decided at the protest meeting held here on Saturday night at which fifteen locals in District 18 were represented.

It transpired that only 781 votes were cast, which were good in the recent election, out of a membership of about 2,800. The only local along the Crows' Nest Line which voted was Bellevue, and only 10 votes of theirs were good out of 400 members. Fernie, the largest local in the district, with 900 members, did not vote. Coal Creek, Michel, Coleman, Blairmore and Hillcrest did not vote either. It was most likely on account of members having to sign their names on the ballots, that none of these locals voted. Out of the 781 votes, Lethbridge local cast 623. The president of Lethbridge local stated that 651 ballots were cast at Lethbridge, 28 were spoiled, which left 623, and so far as he knew, that local only had 625 members. He could not see how it had happened and could offer no explanation.

It also transpired that the president, vice-president and secretary were elected by acclamation as all the candidates withdrew at the last minute, leaving the field clear to one candidate in each of the above positions. The sub-district member who would represent the 2,800 members in District 18, was elected on one vote, it being the only ballot marked for him.

Some members had the impression that there would be some excitement at Saturday's meeting, but all was very orderly and businesslike, with only one resolution, that being, that the officers of the district are requested to call a district convention on or before November 21st, and failing to do so there will be a recall of all officers elected recently.

A meeting was held last night by supporters of the Conservative party to elect delegates to attend the convention of that party, to be held in Macleod this evening.

CROW HOCKEY LEAGUE TO MEET NOVEMBER 29TH

President Long, of the Crow Hockey League, has called a meeting of that body, to be held on Saturday, November 29th, at Lethbridge.

A meeting of the Blairmore Hockey Club will be held on Monday evening next, at 8 p.m. in the Miner's hall for the purpose of appointing a delegate to the League meeting.

BAMBER—PURVIS

The marriage of William Percy Bamber, of Nelson, to Miss Gladys Purvis, of Blairmore, was solemnized by the Rev. J. P. Westman at Trinity Methodist church, Nelson, at 7.15 o'clock on Saturday morning last.

Mr. Bamber is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bamber, of Nelson. Miss Purvis, who was a nurse at the Kootenay Lake general hospital, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Purvis, of Blairmore.

Attired in silk crepe de chene and carrying a bouquet of white roses and carnations, the bride was escorted to the church by Miss Rose E. Flunkett, of Pincher Creek, the bridesmaid, who was dressed in white and mauve organdie. L. O. Campbell assisted the groom. Mrs. J. J. Purvis, the bride's mother, was among the party.

After the ceremony, the bridal party returned to the home of the groom, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served, and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bamber left on the Great Northern train to spend a honeymoon at Spokane, Seattle and other coast points before returning to Nelson to reside.

NEW APARTMENT BUILDING COMPLETED

The new four-apartment building in West Blairmore was given the finishing touches last week end and passed from the contractor to the owners through the hands of the architect firm of Messrs. Burrell & Bevel, of Calgary.

The building is of stucco finish brick tile construction, and is one of the best located and handsomest structures of its kind in Southern Alberta and reflects great credit upon the building skill of Contractor Pozzi. The work throughout was done by local hands,—building, heating, lighting, etc. The plumbing was done by the Knapman Plumbing and Heating Co. The apartments are elaborate and perfect in every detail. The building stands upon a full-sized concrete basement of about forty-five by 80 feet and is heated from the central heating plant, and contains four spacious apartments of four rooms with bathrooms, closets, etc. The kitchen equipments are the most modern now in use and are installed with a view of conserving space. Other rooms are large, bright, and airy. Floors are of white maple throughout, while walls and ceilings are of hard plaster. Each apartment is equipped with a large closed-in conservatory or piazza. The site is ideal and while the building is practically wrapped in a beautiful poplar and balsam grove, still a magnificent view of surrounding mountains is afforded.

Visitors are delightfully impressed with the architectural appearance of this structure, which is only one of several proposed to be erected in the neighborhood.

We are sorry that we are unable, this issue, to give a detailed account of the Conclave held by the Tuxis and Trail Ranger Boys on Tuesday night. However, we are able to record the final results, which were: "Life Buoy, Panthers" 166 points; "Non Skid, Alphas" 164 points; "Go Ahead" 163 points; "Beacons" and "Life Buoy, Greyhounds" 161 points each. The full account will be published next week.

Good Roads Throughout The West

Visitors from Europe to America, and the thousands of our Canadian boys who went overseas between 1914 and 1918, cannot refrain from noting the sharp contrast afforded by the character of the roads in European countries with those which so generally prevail on this side of the Atlantic, and the contrast is by no means favorable to America.

It is recognized, of course, that the older civilizations of Europe, with their teeming millions of people, and their comparative small areas as contrasted with the enormous extent and sparse population of Canada, do not present parallel cases, but, after making due allowance for these conditions, it must be admitted that it is time that the people of Canada seriously grapple with the problem, huge as it is, of providing better highways.

Poor roads, or none at all, are inseparable from pioneer countries. The untrodden spaces must first be explored, trails broken, and very ordinary routes of travel provided. Only with the influx of population and permanent settlement can the work of first class road-making be carried on. But despite all the handicaps of an enormous extent of territory and a small population Canada has led the world in the construction of railways, and its pioneer railway, still young in years, is a marvel of efficiency, a source of national pride, and of admiration in other lands.

But Canada's roads? Taken as a whole they are execrable, a source of national humiliation and shame unworthy of an intelligent enterprising people. Whatever excuse there may have been in the past for the neglect of the primary arteries of transportation and communication, the excuse will no longer hold good. The urgent need of dealing with the problem in a big, intelligent and aggressive manner is now clear. It has been recognized in the United States where great strides in the work of improvement have been made in recent years. It is now time that Canada woke up, and especially the Western Provinces. Quebec and Ontario are tackling the problem, and the West must do likewise.

The introduction of the automobile and its now almost universal use has forced the importance and value of good roads upon the attention of all. Important as good roads have always been in the internal economy of the country, they have taken an added importance and value with the coming of the motor driven car. Poor roads were never cheap at any time, and the cost of building good roads and maintaining them is small in comparison to the cost of bad roads in these days of the automobile.

It is false economy, penny-wise and pound foolish, to refrain from the necessary expenditure for good roads and then, as individual citizens and taxpayers, pay out many times the amount in loss of valuable time, huge bills for repairs to expensive cars, and enormous waste in the use of gasoline and oil, all of which is the inevitable result of bad roads. And every farmer knows the loss he sustains when forced to haul a half-ton of grain many miles to an elevator because of the state of the roads, as compared with the hauling of a full load in less time, and at less labor for his horses, over a good road.

Two main things appear to be required. First, that the haphazard method of road building by municipalities, oft times with inexperienced men in charge, be replaced by systematic planning and work carried out by the Provincial Governments under the direction of qualified engineers and road-making experts. To some might extend this better method is being followed, but there is still room for its extension. In fact, in all Provinces throughout the West the Provincial Governments should be responsible for the proper construction of all main highways, leaving only the minor local arteries leading into those highways to the care of the municipal councils.

Second, and of equal importance, is the question of the maintenance of the roads once they have been built. Hundreds of thousands of dollars spent in the construction of fairly good roads have been lost, owing to failure to provide proper maintenance and upkeep. There is hardly a district in Western Canada which does not provide such object lessons of almost criminal mismanagement and waste.

The present time, when there is considerable unemployment throughout the country, would seem to suggest itself as a most opportune occasion to embark on an active and well-considered programme of good roads construction throughout the West. True, road-building cannot be carried on during the severe winter months when the ground is frozen, but the programmes could now be made and orders placed for necessary materials, thus providing winter employment in the manufacture of such materials, and then with the completion of seeding next spring thousands of men could be put actively at work and kept steadily employed until harvest and threshing called them into the fields, instead of, as now, bringing tens of thousands of harvest hands into the country for a few weeks' work at high wages right on the eve of winter setting in, hundreds of whom find that their harvest wages are not sufficient to carry them over the winter and they, therefore, become a charge upon the cities and towns into which they drift when threshing is completed.

Germany's Motor Ships

Shipyards Have Orders For Twenty Vessels of This Type.

A feature of Germany's shipbuilding programme at present is the comparatively large number of motor vessels under construction, or the building of which is contemplated. That the motorship is coming into its own in Germany may be gathered from the statement that no fewer than twenty vessels of this type, aggregating about 125,000 tons and of an average of 6,500 tons, are on order with German shipyards; while recently about twenty sets of machinery have been extracted from former submarines and installed in merchant ships; the hulls of the latter having been converted from warships into sailing vessels.—Liverpool Week by Post.

Danish Farmers Taking British Bacon Market Away From Canada

Toronto.—Canadian meat packers state that "Canadian farmers are facing the uncomfortable fact that the British bacon market is slipping away to their competitors, temporarily at least." They state, "that packers had to hit by and watch Danish competition overtake and pass them, merely because there were no hogs on our farms to purchase."

E. C. Fox, of the William Davies Company, explained that the reason for the Danish exporter making such progress in the British market is a simple one. "The Danish farmer has been and is raising hogs and so the bacon to export. 'We' have not the quantity of bacon to export, because a sufficient number of hogs are not being raised."

"It is because the Danish exporter is supplying the British market with bacon at a cheaper price than the Canadian exporter," Mr. Fox was asked.

"Not at all," he replied. "Danish bacon is a higher priced bacon."

Find Lost Doctor In Ontario Woods

Toronto. Man Without Food Or Fire For Three Days.

Fort William, Ont.—Dr. Graham Chambers, Toronto physician, who was lost in the woods near Altkikan, a division point of the Canadian National Railways west of here, since Sept. 29, was found alive but in a weakened condition near Deer Lake, about 22 miles northeast of Altkikan.

Dr. Chambers was found by two Indians who were members of a large search party, comprising, in addition to residents of Altkikan, several citizens of Fort William and Port Arthur, among whom were a number of Dr. Chambers' former scholars.

According to information members of the search party secured from the Indians, Dr. Chambers had been without food or fire practically from the moment he lost himself, when he and his nephew left Clearwater Lake for Ice Lake on a fishing trip.

His nephew had left Dr. Chambers in the brush to attend to other matters and on returning found the doctor had disappeared. He gave the alarm and the search was continued since.

The weather has been extremely disagreeable and fears were expressed that the doctor could not survive the long cold and damp nights. Government hydroplanes, which were stationed at Sioux Lookout, were dispatched to the search.

Charged With Treason

Bulgarian Officials Are Being Tried

Sofia, Bulgaria.—The trial of Bulgarians, accused of war crimes, opened in a theatre here which had been specially fitted up for the occasion. The court room was crowded to capacity.

The accused men include the former cabinet ministers and three generals. They are charged with high treason in favor of Germany and misappropriation of public funds. The public prosecutor is demanding the death penalty for most of the defendants.

Statesmen and diplomats to the number of 190 have been subpoenaed as witnesses. The judges, who were elected by the people, all are simple peasants. They sit on the bench dressed in their picturesque national costumes.

According To Statistics Improvement Is Shown As To Employment

Ottawa.—The employment situation in Canada registers an improvement. Returns of the employment service, Department of Labor, show that for the two-week period ending September 10, the volume of employment reported by employers showed expansion, the index number standing at 89.6 as compared with 87.7 in the preceding fortnight. Since the beginning of April, in fact, employment has shown a slightly upward tendency, although in volume it still continues on the mid-winter level.

For the two weeks ended September 10, returns were tabulated from 5,240 firms with an aggregate payroll of some $89,201 persons. For the two North Portal.—George Lane, of the Bar U Ranch, Calgary, shipped through this port 47 cars of cows and steers to the Chicago market. This is the first big shipment this season from the Canadian ranches to the American market, and is an experiment by Mr. Lane, who expressed the opinion that the Chicago market was the best at the present time, despite the 30 per cent duty, which has to be paid on entry into the United States. The ocean freight rates to Great Britain, he said, were practically prohibitive.

French Convicts May Be Pardonned

Rescue Many Helpless Victims In Train Wreck.

Lyons, France.—Handcuffed in pairs and in charge of four gendarmes, 12 French military prisoners on route for Algeria to serve sentences ranging from five to fifteen years, were aboard the Strasbourg-Marseilles express when it jumped the track at Les Echets, a few miles from here. Forty passengers were killed and 70 injured. None of the prisoners were seriously hurt, but three gendarmes were killed and another planned under the wreckage, lay seriously wounded.

All semblance of authority and order had disappeared. The prisoners were free but, instead of running away, they pulled the wounded gendarme out of the tangled mass of wood and iron and laid him on the grass. During the night they rescued 21 injured passengers. They gave themselves up.

They have since left for Algeria to serve their sentences, but it is understood that the Minister of War is studying the case, and the opinion is expressed that, in due course, they will be pardonned.

Courts In India

Deal With Rebels

Impose Prison Terms From 20 Months To Two Years.

London.—Reuters' correspondent at Simla, India, says that the summary courts dealing with the Moplah rebels are taking strong action. Eight hundred and one prisoners have been committed to higher courts for trial on major trials; 1,664 have been sentenced to terms of two years' imprisonment, and 375 to terms ranging from two to twenty months, while 19 were acquitted.

Growers Have Been Invited To State Their Wishes.

London.—A Reuter cable from Melbourne says Premier W. M. Hughes, speaking at Bendigo, expressed his belief that the wheat pool would include all States. He invited the growers to state their wishes. Reuter's Melbourne correspondent also says it is reported that the Commonwealth wheat pool is to be made entirely independent of political control, like the Commonwealth Bank.

Manitoba's Road Problem

By A. C. Emmett, Secretary Manitoba Motor League.

The absolute lack of proper maintenance of the highways is the cause of the present system of municipal control. Until such time as sufficient public interest can be aroused to secure the adoption of a more centralized system of control, just so long will the taxpayers' money be prodigally scattered in patchwork roads and maintenance.

The Brandon and District Good Roads committee provided, those who were acting as judges, an excellent opportunity of securing a first class object lesson as to improper construction and maintenance. On many of the main roads where large sums of money have been expended on construction, the value of the work has been partially lost by the lack of maintenance. This was especially noticeable five miles west of Brandon to the village of Kemnay. This stretch of road is full of deep ruts and pot holes. Unless given immediate attention the road will soon be in such a condition that grading will be the only means to remedy its usefulness as a transportation artery.

Wallace municipality is still the banner municipality as far as good roads are concerned, but even on its excellent gravel roads the want of proper supervision of the maintenance work is becoming apparent through the encroachment of weeds and grass. The dragsmen have been called to keep the centre ten to twelve feet in good shape and have therefore lost some six feet of good road which was originally there when the first construction work was finished.

The municipality of Sifton is making very good progress on the improvement of its roads and will undoubtedly carry off the premier honors in the Brandon and district competition.

In the earth roads class a special example of work was found in the municipality of Woodworth. Special praise is undoubtedly due to the constant who had had charge of the two mile stretch, as, not only was the surface of the road kept in splendid condition for its full width, but the sides were also well trimmed and free from weeds, high grass and rubbish. An added touch of neatness was given by the whitewashing of the culvert walls. This latter feature was noticeable on practically all the prize winning stretches.

Oakland municipality showed well in the awards with a very fine stretch of earth road close to the town of Wawanesa and a stretch of gravel on the Brandon-Carroll road. The latter stretch was only gravelled last July but has been consistently dragged and put in excellent shape by the outstanding dragsmen.

A final consideration of the four of the district undoubtedly impressed the judges with the necessity of some improvement in the system of construction and maintenance in order to provide some means of securing a continuous system of highways in place of the patchwork system which prevails under the present system of municipal control.

In the opinion of the writer, this can only be secured by Government control of at least the main trunk highways of the Province. Such a system would provide a basic system of highways covering the Province in all directions and would then become not only main transportation arteries, but would also provide a real object lesson in road construction for the municipalities who, constructing their market or feeder roads to connect with the main routes.

Government control of the main highways would also tend to economy in construction cost as with centralized control, the planning of the work and the actual construction can be carried on in such a manner as to make it possible for the contractors to bid on long continuous stretches instead of scattered sections which entail a very large outlay in the moving of men and equipment over long distances.

Many contractors of skill and experience would turn their attention to good roads work if all the work was controlled by one central board instead of the hodgepodge of one municipality that they would have to deal with under existing conditions.

New Zealand Places

Loan In London

Will Not Go Outside Empire Says Premier Massey.

London.—A Reuter cable from Wellington says Premier Massey informed a deputation that the New Zealand Government was placing an additional loan of half a million pounds in London for a special purpose, and added: "I am not going to America for it, you can make up your minds about that. I am not going to break relations with the people of England who stood us well in past years."

A dispatch to Reuters from Sydney regarding the loan of three million pounds sterling which the New South Wales Government is raising in London, says that the Hon. John Lang, the state treasurer, had received several offers of loans from London banks since 1920. None of these offers, however, had been favorably considered. Some of the strongest of the United States banks are again pressing the New South Wales to open negotiations.

Finds Name a Handicap

U.S. Citizen Permitted to Change Trotsky to Travers.

Passaic, N.J.—The name of Trotsky is a handicap on United States citizen should be compelled to labor under, County Judge Watson said when he permitted Benjamin Trotsky to change his name to Benjamin Travers.

"I have been fighting against that name of Trotsky ever since that fool in Europe started things," the applicant said. "Customers come to my place of business, look at my window and then pass on."

"Spend your money at home, there by helping your own town and local merchants."

Final Decision Reached On New Frontier Line For Upper Silesia

Celebrate Centenary Of Y.M.C.A. Founder

London.—The centenary of the birth of the late Sir George Williams, to whom the Young Men's Christian Association movement owes much of its inaugural movement, has been celebrated by that organization in Great Britain. Messages were read from the King, Premier Lloyd George and other prominent men. All the overseas dominions were represented.

Aland Islands Problem

Neutralization Left With Britain.

Geneva.—The international conference for the neutralization of the Aland Islands adopted a proposition put forward by Prof. Simon Askenazy, the Polish delegate, providing that Great Britain, Italy and France—the three powers not possessing territory bordering on the Baltic Sea—should work out a compromise plan for the settlement of the question. The conference was called here in accordance with a decision of the Council of the League of Nations.

New Lamp Burns 94% Air

Beats Electric Or Gas.

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 100 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, no simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal-oil).

The inventor, T. Y. Johnson, 595 McDermott Ave., Winnipeg, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to ship one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $300 to $500 per month.

Bank Bandits Caught

Five Men Who Robbed Manitoba Bank Were Amateurs.

Winnipeg.—Five amateur bandits, who held up the Bank of Hochelaga at Elle, Man., about thirty miles from here, were captured about five and a half miles from the scene of the robbery. They were captured by a posse of farmers, headed by A. Bherer, manager of the bank. The amount taken from the bank was between $1,000 and $1,200, all of which was recovered. Early reports of the robbery indicated that the amount stolen would exceed $40,000.

The captured men gave their names as Henry B. Quackenbush, James Redding, Sydney L. Roberts, George J. Adams, and Clarence W. Adams.

Gypsy Charged With Witchcraft.

Port Arthur, Ont.—Myrtle Fowhard, gypsy, arrested after complaints of Joe Antonuk, an Austrian who has taken a roll of $155 from, was charged before District Judge MacKay with obtaining money under false pretences and with practising witchcraft, sorcery and enchantment. She pleaded guilty to all the charges and was ordered to return the money and to leave the Province.

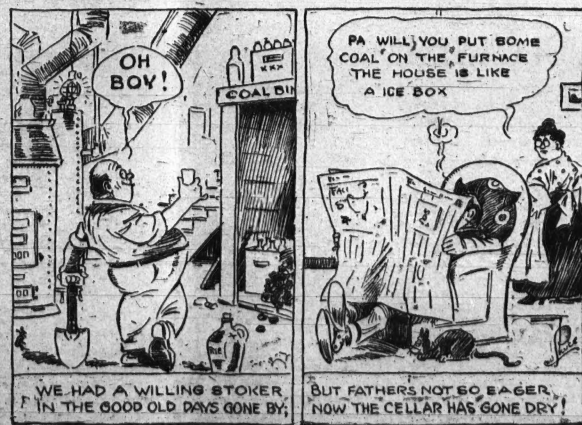

The main cause of this existing acute competition, which is causing no little apprehension, is the fact that Europe has stopped buying and selling grain. Officials state that the present conditions are unprecedented.

Prize For Airship Mooring Mast.

London.—In regard to the lengthy discussions at the recent Imperial conference in regard to the development of airships, it is interesting to note that the Royal Institution of British Architects has decided to award the Grizel prize this year for the best design of a mooring mast. The air ministry has exhibited much interest in the competition and has offered to nominate an expert to assist the prize committee.

Moors Defeated.

Madrid.—Spanish troops fighting in Morocco have defeated rebellious Moors in an important struggle near Goussergue. Goussergue was converted into an immense bonfire by the burning of shelter and cantonments where the Moors had been quartered.

W. J. BARTLETT, P. B. BLASHER

Blaimore, Alta., Thurs., Oct. 20, 1921

It seems rather unfair that a local citizen, proved to be honest and respectable, should be made the victim of one of the lowest down creatures on earth, those object to place him under the cloud of a conviction and subject to a penalty for some allowance offered by provincial or Dominion departments.

In the cases in Blaimore and tried last week against several theatre proprietors, it seems that "spotters" had to come in to offer an inducement for the breaking of the law or to actually commit a crime themselves in order to land their victim. They in some cases purchased admission tickets and passed into the theatres in the rush of people, avoiding the theatre-tax clerk. Anyone could do so, knowingly or otherwise, and we venture to say that it often happens that persons pass into the theatres in a crowd without ever thinking of the tax. Cases such as this should be let down leniently, with a word of warning, when there is absolutely no reason to believe that the so-called "infraction" occurred with intent to break the law.

A NEW "ROD AND GUN"

As regularly as we read W. J. Taylor's Rod and Gun every month. It is the only sportsman's magazine in Canada that we all take and enjoy. There is not one dull feature in any page and if Editor Taylor will extend the interesting camp fire stories of Bait and Columbia and other parts of the West to the East—the Fishermen's Sporting paradise of Canada, his "Rod and Gun" will get an increase to its 20,000 subscribers that will surprise him. We wish you had time to relate him some of the fish stories of this past summer—why they would startle him and all Ontario would be here for next seasons trout and salmon fishing. Imagine 580 trout, many of them right in from the sea, within a month's holidays! Right across the street from the Truro News Office we can get from a brother sportsman Salmon and Trout tales of the past summers catch in the Sheet Harbor waters that would almost seem fairy tales, if not verified beyond any possibility of contradiction. All this is a hint for the "Rod and Gun" people to extend their work more largely than ever to these Maritime Provinces and in the enlarged and handsome form of their magazine not to forget that Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, P. E. Island and Newfoundland have sporting grounds and fishing resorts, that cannot be excelled in all this great Dominion.

One of the largest attended and most interesting meetings of the local L. O. O. F. lodge was held on Tuesday night, when the degree ceremony of Mount Fenwick Lodge, under Captain Jones, conferred the Fellowship Degree in a very able manner. There were present representatives from various lodges in the district, including the local lodge, and a large number of guests. The ceremony was held in the hall of the local lodge, and was attended by a large number of guests. The ceremony was held in the hall of the local lodge, and was attended by a large number of guests. The ceremony was held in the hall of the local lodge, and was attended by a large number of guests.

When convictions are allowed to be registered, and respectively citizens branded as convicts as a result of evidence produced by the lowest class of human creature, the sheepdog, without evidence to prove "breach with intent," one can hardly expect anyone to have full regard for the laws and order of the land. In the case of the convictions registered this week against proprietors of local theatres, it seems that the action is childish and mean.

The suggestion has been made that a People's Forum should be formed for the Pass, with headquarters in Blaimore. The idea has met with considerable favorable comment and local probability a meeting will be called shortly to effect an organization. The Forum, if organized, will hold sessions on Sunday afternoons, providing the most profitable pastime in the way of educational and instructive lectures and debates. These sessions would be held in Blaimore as a central point, but occasionally could be staged in Bellevue and Coleman for the benefit of these communities.

Several places in town were raided on Saturday and Sunday last by Sgt. Nicholson and staff of the A. P. P. and in most cases liquor was found to be in their possession contrary to law.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings of the local Rebekah lodge was held on Thursday night last, for the purpose of welcoming an official visit from the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, Sister Rogers, of Calgary, and past president, Sister MacDougall, of Pincher Creek.

About one hundred members were in attendance, including quite a number from Pincher Creek, Coleman and Bellevue. The Rebekah Degree was conferred in an able manner by the local team, directed by Noble Grand Sister McVey, following which the meeting was addressed by Sisters Rogers and MacDougall and the meeting adjourned. Refreshments were afterwards served and the high fantastic was tripped by a few disciples.

On Tuesday night of this week, the president and suite visited the Rebekah Lodge at Coleman, where they were welcomed by a record attendance. The meeting was held in the Eagle's hall, which was filled to capacity. Here the Rebekah Degree was conferred in an able manner and a social programme brought the meeting to a close. Before closing the president was presented with a beautiful bouquet and address.

COLEMAN HAPPENINGS

Charles Scott, who spent the summer in Ontario, has returned home.

The Catholic whist drive will be held in the Catholic schoolroom on this Thursday evening.

The C. G. I. T. held an enjoyable Mother's and Daughters' Banquet in the Institutional church schoolroom on Monday evening.

All are looking forward to the play to be given under the auspices of the St. Alban's church in Graham's hall on Friday, October 26th.

The night classes have opened up in the public school here. Mr. Powell and Mr. Davidson are in charge of the classes, which are being well attended.

On Sunday next, Rev. J. C. Robertson, of Toronto, will speak at the morning and evening services in the Institutional church. Mr. Robertson is passing through Coleman on his way home from the meeting of the Synod, which was held in Vancouver.

The men's meeting held in the Institutional church on Sunday, October 16th, was well attended. The boy violinist, of the Joe Williams Music Co., belonging to the Chautauque gave two very pleasing numbers. Next Sunday, the men's meeting will be an open one, and it is expected that Rev. J. C. Robertson, of Toronto will address the meeting.

The Coleman public school staff is complete now with fifteen teachers, and all is in working order. Two additional rooms have been opened in the West Coleman school, which makes six school rooms at West Coleman, and nine at the central school. The teachers are placed as follows:

Mr. R. G. Powell, principal.
Mr. Nimmons, vice-principal.
Miss M. Smith, Grade VI.
Miss M. Murray, Grade V.
Miss J. MacKay, Grade IV.
Miss A. Bibeck, Grade III.
Miss E. A. McGillicuddy, Grade II.
Miss D. McLeod, Grade I.
Miss M. Nesbitt, Primary.
In West Coleman School:
Mr. F. Antrobus, Grade VIII.
Miss L. I. Price, Grades VI. and VII.
Miss H. Horne, Grade V.
Miss C. M. McEachern, Grades III. and IV.
Miss M. Jerrold, Grade II.
Mrs. F. W. Shields, Primary.
There are almost five hundred pupils enrolled, so that each school room is well filled.

An Editor's Life

Here it is—
If he stays in his office people say he does not try to get the news.

If he goes out on the street, they say he should be in his office attending to business.

If he goes to church it is for appearance.

If he stays away from church he is a heathen.

If he mispells a person's name, he is a bonehead.

If he spells it right, the person gets mad, anyway.

If he records a personal of you and not your neighbor, the neighbor claims he has a grudge against him.

If he attends a social or any other event, they say he was there because he got a free ticket.

If he stays away, they say he hasn't got the price to go.

If he sends you a bill, you throw it in the paper basket.

If he doesn't send you one, you ball him out.

Oh, well, such is life. Most editors die of starvation or in the poor house, anyway, so what's the difference.

Rev. Father Murphy received word by wire on Sunday night of the serious illness of his mother at New York and requesting his presence. The Rev. Father left here by Monday night's train and will likely be away a few weeks.

AMENDMENT TO CRIMINAL CODE RESPECTING FIRES

The following amendments have recently been enacted in connection with the act respecting fire prevention:

1. Section five hundred and fifteen of the Criminal Code is amended by inserting the following subsection immediately before subsection two thereof:

"(1A) Every person is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to two years' imprisonment who by negligence causes any fire which occasions loss of life or loss of property."

"The person owning, occupying or controlling the premises in which such fire occurs, or on which such fire originates, shall be deemed to have caused the fire through negligence if such person has failed to obey the requirements of any law intended to prevent fires or which requires apparatus for the extinguishment of fires or to facilitate the escape of persons in the event of fire, or the jury finds that such fire, or loss of life, or the whole or any substantial portion of the loss of property, would not have occurred if such law had been complied with."

2. The said Act is further amended by inserting immediately after section five hundred and fifteen the following section:

"(11A) When any Dominion, Provincial or Municipal fire officer or authority recommends to the owner, lessee or other person controlling or operating any building, structure, factory, shipyard, vessel, dock, wharf, pier, sawmill, or yard in which logs or lumber are stored or held, that any reasonable change, alteration or addition should be made in or to such building, structure, factory, shipyard, vessel, dock, wharf, pier, sawmill, or yard with a view to safeguarding life or property from destruction by fire, or that any material should be removed therefrom with such view, or that any apparatus should be supplied therefor with such view and if such recommendation is approved by an officer in the service of His Majesty, hereunto authorized by the Governor in Council; and if notice of such recommendation and approval has been personally served upon such owner, lessee or other person; and if, after the expiration of thirty days from the receipt of such notice, such owner, lessee or other person refuses, neglects or otherwise fails to carry out such recommendation to the satisfaction of His Majesty hereinafter mentioned, such owner, lessee or other person shall be guilty of an indictable offence and shall be liable to a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment."

Most Used Letter

Ask the average person what is the most used letter in the English alphabet and it is doubtful whether he can answer. Any printer, however, will tell you that it is the letter e, but it is probable that even printers cannot tell you what is the second, third and fourth most used. The succession of letters arranged as to their frequency in the language is as follows: e, a, o, i, d, h, n, r, s, j, t, u, y, c, f, g, l, m, w, b, k, p, q, z.

An Eastern Canada Baptist divine declares that there can be no union of Baptists with the non-conformists.

FORESTS RESERVED FOR USE

It must always be kept in mind that the word "reserve" in connection with the Canadian forest reserves means that the forest is reserved for use and not from use. As has been proved many times in Eastern Canada, if settlers locate and clear an area of such poor soil that it is fit only to grow trees, then in twenty or twenty-five years they will abandon their sandy or rocky farms and, heart-broken at the loss of so much time and human endeavor, will go away to begin life over again. All over the continent it is recognized as criminal to allow uninformed people to go into districts where there is little agricultural land that attempts at farming are bound to end in failure. Similarly it is only one degree less criminal to allow those who first cut timber in a forest reserve to slash and hack and burn trees, to the detriment of all who come after. The Dominion forest reserves administration is therefore organized to make these areas as useful as possible to the surrounding communities. Millions of feet of saw-timber and thousands of cords of fuel-wood are annually cut by settlers and, over a hundred thousand head of stock—cattle, horses, and sheep—are grazed yearly on parts of the reserves not covered with timber. By using up first the fire-killed, diseased, and mature timber and allowing the young trees a chance to grow, it is expected that a perpetual supply of timber will be maintained on the reserves to meet the needs of the surrounding settlements. The first condition, however, for the accomplishment of this end is united action of all citizens in keeping fires out of growing timber.

Rev. P. J. N. Cusman is expected to return to Blairmore from Nova Scotia the early part of November. Rev. Cusman was obliged, several months ago, to take a rest and health trip, his duties here being taken up by Father Murphy, of New York.

The action of the province of British Columbia for a declaration that the Dominion government has no right to impose customs duties on liquor imported by the province, will be defended by the Dominion government.

Blairmore Lodge, No. 68, meets every Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the Jodelow's hall. Officers for ensuing term: W. Patterson, N.G.; J. Patterson, V.G.; W. T. Patterson, J.S.; J. Montalbetti, treasurer.

Crows' Nest Encampment No. 8, meets on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month in the I.O.O.F. hall at 8 p. m. Officers: E. Eckmiller, J.P.; J. Montalbetti, treasurer.

We have never attempted anything as large nor carried out such a CAMPAIGN of PRICE CUTTING on seasonable merchandise as you will see at this sale. The average merchant at the close of the season puts on a WHIRLWIND SLAUGHTER SALE after you have purchased your winter needs previously at high prices--the sale doesn't appeal to you naturally. Now, we, at an opportune time are giving you winter apparel at prices that can't be beaten.

Roosevelt on Churches

(Chicago Tribune)
Theodore Roosevelt's church creed was continued in nine pagent paragraphs. We quote as follows:
"Yes, I know all the excuses. I know that one can worship the Creator in a grove of trees, or by a running brook, or in a man's own house, just as well as in a church. But I also know, as a matter of cold fact, the average man does not thus worship."
"He may not hear a good sermon at the church. He will hear a sermon by a good man, who,
with his wife, is engaged all week
in making hard lives a little easier."
"He will listen and take part in reading some beautiful passages from the Bible. And if he is not familiar with the Bible he has suffered a loss."
"He will take part in singing
some hymns."
"He will meet and nod or speak to good quiet neighbors. He will come away feeling a little more charitable toward all the world, even toward those excessively foolish young men who regard church going as a soft performance."

An entire Houston, Texas, congregation went to church last Sunday in airplanes. Upon invitation of chaplain A. B. Foltz, 20 officers and enlisted men from Ellington Flying Field started out for Galveston Island at 9 o'clock and in less than 30 minutes had traversed the 50 miles to Chaplain Foltz's church.

The dance given in the opera house on Monday night was a huge success. The crowd was the largest yet accommodated on this floor and the entrance receipts amounted to in the neighborhood of $400. Music by the Banff orchestra was declared good. The proceeds of this dance have been handed over to the managing board of the local Church of England.

Another big dance event is being planned. This will be the banner of the season, and will be held at the local opera house on the night of Tuesday, November 15th, under the auspices of the Bachelors of Blairmore, with the Banff orchestra in attendance.
This is the second annual event of its kind, the affair last year being voted one of the most successful social events ever staged here.
Watch for later announcements.

An Ocean Stepping Stone

One importance of Newfoundland is its geographical position. St. John's, the chief port and capitol of the country, is 1,000 miles nearer to England than is New York. In fact, the World's Work remarks it is only 1400 miles from the coast of Ireland, so greatly does the Atlantic shrink off the coast of Newfoundland. That is why this unique country has had the distinction of receiving the first transatlantic wireless message at St. John's in 1901, and also why the first non-stop transatlantic airplane flight started from the same vicinity.
The Cape Race light is the first greeting from America to ships on the northern route from Europe, and it is the last to flash goodspeed to eastbound vessels. Newfoundland is verily the stepping stone between America and Europe.

LOOKING AHEAD

Cowley Happenings

The local whist players are busy arranging for a winter drive.

Mrs. E. S. Easterbrook is a Calgary visitor this week.

Mrs. Diamond left on Monday for Quebec.

Despite the poor prices paid for livestock, considerable shipping is being done.

Messrs. McMillan and LaBrie attended the dance in Blairmore
on the 17th.

Considerable work is being done
on the water works and a better supply for winter is assured.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Tustian and family have moved to Blairmore
for the winter.

The village is filling up for the winter. O. McKerral and family, and H. Franz and family are taking two of the vacant houses.
Houses are now at a premium.

Messrs. Morrison, F. Tustian,
G. Risson, H. Swart and P. S.
Burles were Blairmore visitors on Tuesday evening, attending a special Oddfellows' gathering.

Cowley's first Fall Chautauqua held on Oct. 12th, 13th, and 14th, was quite a success and drew record crowds. On Friday evening a dance was held following the performance.

A WARNING!

For the information of those who are in the habit of placing notices, etc., in the postoffice, the following from the office of the district superintendent will be of interest:

"Advertising notices should on no account be posted up in the lobby of post offices."

Sometimes, unknown to the postmaster, such notices are put in the lobby of the office. Constant vigilance is required to prevent infraction of the law in this connection.
There should be regulations in large type posted in the lobby, stating the law in this regard, and the penalties for an infraction thereof. This should be followed by prosecutions if such are repeated.

Only notices from governmental departments can be posted in post offices.

Vaseline White PETROLEUM JELLY

Oh, Money! Money!

BY ELEANOR H. PORTER

Printed by Special Arrangements with Thos. Allen, Toronto, Ont.

They told her that she could have all the money she wanted by just filling out one of the little slips in her checkbook the way they had told her to do it, and taking it to Mr. Chalmers' bank—that there was a good many thousand dollars there waiting for her to spend, just as she liked; and that, when they were gone, Mr. Chalmers would tell her how to get some of her bonds and get more. "It seemed very wonderful!"

There were other things, too, that they had told her—too many for her to remember—something about interest, and things called coupons that must be cut off the bonds at certain times. She tried to remember it all; but Mr. Chalmers had been very kind and had told her to feel free to write him when the time came. Meanwhile, he had rented her a nice tin box (that looked like a safe) in the safe-deposit vault under the bank, where she could keep her bonds and all the other papers—such as they were—till Mr. Chalmers told her she must keep very carefully.

But it was all so new and complicated, and everybody was always talking at once, so!

No wonder, indeed, that Miss Flora was quite breathless with all she had to do. By the time the Blaisdells found themselves able to pay attention to Hillerton, or to anything outside their own astounding personal affairs, they became suddenly aware of the attention Hillerton was paying to them.

The whole town was saying that the residence of Frank Blaisdell, and Miss Flora's humble cottage might be found at nearly any daylight hour with from one to a dozen curious-eyed gazers on the sidewalk before them. The town paper had contained an elaborate account of the quest and the remarkable circumstances attending it, and Hillerton became the Mecca of wandering automobiles for miles around. Big metropolitan dailies got wind of the affair, recognized the magic name of Stanley G. Fulton, and sent reporters to Hillerton.

Speculation as to whether the multi-millionaire was really dead was prevalent everywhere. The search for some clue to his reported South American exploring expedition appeared immediately, but none of them seemed to have any real foundation.

Interviews with the great law firm having the handling of Mr. Fulton's affairs were printed, but even here little could be learned save the mere fact of the letter of instructions, upon which they had acted according to directions. And the other fact—that there still remained one more packet—undoubtedly to be the last will and testament—to be opened in two years' time if Mr. Fulton remained unheard from.

The lawyers were bland and courteous, but they really had nothing to say, they declared, beyond the already published facts. In Hillerton the Blaisdells accepted this notoriety with characteristic variation. Miss Flora, after cordially welcoming one "nice young man" and telling him all about how strange and wonderful it was, and how frightened she felt, was so shocked and distressed to find all that she said (and a great deal that she did not say) starting at her from the first page of a big newspaper, that she forthwith barred her doors, and refused to open them till she satisfied herself, by surreptitious peeps through the blinds, that it was only a neighbor who was coming for admittance.

An offer of marriage from a Western ranchman and another from a Vermont farmer (both entirely strange to her) tended to lessen her perturbation of mind.

Even at the grocery store, rather welcomed questioners—so long as there was a hope of turning them into customers; but his wife and Mother-in-law showed almost as much terror of them as did Miss Flora herself.

James Blaisdell and Fred stoically accepted their share of the publicity for their brusque non-committal answers. At first welcoming everything with the enthusiasm he would accord to a circus, soon snuffed his disdain as at a show that had gone stale.

The Man Who Works Hard Should Follow This Advice

Perseverance and will-power he should have, but whether he has strength and vigor is another question. Hard working men often have headaches and suffer from biliousness. The occasional use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills keeps a man feeling fit and fine, keeps him always at the top of his business, and his complexion is quickly remedied by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. noon in a handsome silk dress and a new fur coat.

"You're looking very well—and happy," Mrs. Blaisdell smiled. Mr. Smith was greeted here.

"I'm well, and I'm perfectly happy," Mr. Smith said. "How could I help it? You know about the new home, of course. Well, it's all ready, and I'm ordering the furnishings. Oh, you don't know what it means to me to be able at last to surround myself with all the beautiful things I've so longed for all my life!"

"I'm very glad, I'm sure," Mr. Smith said the words as if he meant them.

"Yes, of course, and poor Maggie here, she says she's not too much to do, but she can't be, when she never got a cent, do you, Mr. Smith? But poor Maggie!"

"Hush! hush!" begged Miss Maggie. "You'll find money isn't everything in this world, Maggie," growled Mr. Duff, who, to-day, for some unknown reason, had wandered into the kitchen.

"And when I see what a little money does for some people, I don't mind in poor Maggie's case. Furthermore, I'll thank you to keep your sympathy at home. It isn't needed nor wanted here."

"Why, Father Duff," cried Mrs. Blaisdell indignantly, "you know how poor Maggie has had."

"Er—but tell us about the new home," interrupted Mr. Smith quickly, and the fine new furniture.

"Why, there isn't much to tell yet—about the furnishings, I mean."

"But then, you've got them yet. But I can't tell you what I'm going to have."

"Hattie settled herself more comfortably, and began to look happy again. "As I was saying to Maggie, when you came in, I shall get almost everything new for the rooms that I want."

"I mean—of, of course, my old things won't do at all. And I'm thinking of the new furniture, I want the new things, of course, in gilt frames."

"She glanced a little disdainfully at the oak chairs and the mahogany table."

"Going in for old masters, maybe," suggested Mr. Duff, with a sarcasm that fell pointlessly at Mrs. Hattie's feet.

"Old masters?"

"Yes—fine master paintings."

"Certainly not!" Her chin came up a little. "I'm not going to have anything old in my house."

"For me. For me I'm going to have new things—all new things. You have to make a show or you won't be seen."

"But, Hattie, my dear," began Miss Maggie, flushing a little, and carefully avoiding Mr. Smith's eyes, "old master paintings are very valuable, and—"

"I don't care if they are," retorted Mrs. Hattie, with decision. "If they're old, I don't want them, and that settles it. I'm going to have velvet curtains and the handsomest lace curtains that I can find; and I'm going to have some of those gold chairs, like the Pennings have."

"You'll need it, to swing all that style."

"Oh, father!" murmured Miss Maggie. "You don't mind what Father Duff says, 'laughed Mrs. Hattie. But there was a haughty tilt to her eyes as she, too, arose."

"I'm just going, anyway, so you don't need to disturb yourself, Father Duff."

"But Father Duff, with another angry and muttered word, was about having all he wanted already of 'silly chatter,' stamped out into the kitchen, with the usual emphasis of his cane at every other step.

It was just as well, perhaps, that he went, for Mrs. Hattie Blaisdell had been gone barely five minutes when her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jane, came in.

An Amphibious "Tank"

Can Cross Streams As Well As Rough Country.

It is well known that at the time of the Armistice, Great Britain had produced a new type of tank which was a great advance upon the types that had been formerly in use.

Since then further progress has been achieved. The latest curiosity in this line is an amphibious tank, which is capable not only of traversing the roughest country, but of floating across streams and canals.

When Autocracy Ruled

Louis XVI. Had Novel Way of Settling Strife.

Speaking of strikes, says an English correspondent, how many of us remember that Louis XVI. of France once was called upon—to settle a strike. It was the drivers of public conveyances in Paris who then struck, as a protest against privileges which had been accorded to a rival enterprise, in 1779; and they sent a deputation to wait on the King at Choley.

Louis received them at first with a benevolent sympathy and promised that justice should be done. But then, having calmed them, he struck another tone, and announced that they would all be punished for "interrupting a public service and causing inconvenience to the population of Paris."

Is there any potentate anywhere, I wonder, who nowadays ventures to dismiss a labor deputation with such a threat?

The World's Most Wonderful Film

Said to be Record of Historic Battle of Jutland.

What is the most wonderful film in the world? Many different answers will be given to this question, but undoubtedly the film produced in Great Britain to represent the Battle of Jutland is among the most remarkable.

The pictures were composed by photographing numerous specially constructed models of ships arranged on a small scale. Between exposures each ship was moved only one sixteenth of an inch, so that untold patience had to be exercised to reproduce a completed manoeuvre.

The services of many experts were engaged to ensure accuracy in connection with each phase of the engagement and the completed film forms a unique record of an historic battle.

Rats Leave Ships For Lifeboats.

Other rats desert a sinking ship in a proverbial. But it now appears that they berth in lifeboats, as if in preparation for sinking. Of 100 rats destroyed by fumigation on a steamship arriving at San Francisco, says the U. S. Public Health Service, 89 were killed in the four lifeboats.

It is not the one who gets to the corner first that counts, but the one who knows what to do when he gets there.

DYSENTERY

WAS THE CAUSE

"Dysentery is one of the worst forms of bowel complaint, and hardly any other disease so quickly undermines the strength and brings about a condition of prostration and utter collapse after terminate fatally."

To check the unnatural discharge without bringing on constipation you should use that grand old remedy with a reputation extending of 76 years.

DR. FOWLER'S

EXTRACT OF

WILD STRAWBERRY

Mr. G. H. McVagh, Mower, Sask. writes: "About eight years ago I had a severe attack of dysentery. I was sick for three weeks. I weighed 154 lbs. when I took sick and 125 when I got it stopped. I think I tried every medicine on the market, but did not find relief until I used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and one bottle did it. I think there is nothing like it for diarrhea or dysentery."

In the end it is by restoring our European markets and by stopping the waste on armaments and armaments that we shall reconstruct our trade.

That done, we shall once again be in a position to put the provision for unemployment on an economic basis.

Tanac Accomplishes Remarkable Results in Geo. H. Nickels Case

Prominent Wisconsin Man Says Tanac Promptly Relieved Him of Bad Case of Stomach Trouble of Six Months' Standing—Gains 27 Pounds and Feels Fine As a Fiddle.

It is an unquestionable fact that Tanac is now being more widely employed by well known men and women than any other medicine on the American market. One of the latest to testify is George H. Nickels, a well known lecturer, residing at 277 Wells St., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

"Tanac has not only completely restored my health, but I have actually gained 27 pounds in weight," said Mr. Nickels in referring to the remarkable benefits he had derived from the medicine.

"For something over six months, my stomach was very badly disordered. I suffered terribly from indigestion and dyspepsia. At times I would be in great distress and I would be unable to eat. I was so uncomfortable that I was unable to sleep. I was so nervous that I was unable to do my work. I was so weak and dizzy that I was unable to walk around and I just hurt all over."

"Tanac has brought about a wonderful change in my condition. I am now enjoying the very best of health. My appetite is splendid. I eat all my meals. Everything agrees with me perfectly. The nervousness, headaches and dizzy spells are all gone and I never have an ache or pain. I am only too glad to tell others about the wonderful good Tanac has done. It has no equal. Tanac is sold by leading druggists everywhere."

Headache

Recurring headaches usually come from an exhaustion of the nervous system, and they do not disappear until the vigor of the nerve cells is restored by such up-building treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Temporary relief by use of powders is often obtained at an enormous expense to the nervous system and the general health.

Get the nerves right and the headaches will not return.

Mrs. W. J. Pearce, Nunn St., Cobourg, Ont., writes:

"My system became run-down and I suffered greatly with pain in my head. This was so severe that I would have to bind a cloth tightly about my head so that I could get any sleep. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after taking the first box I found quite an improvement in my condition. I continued using them until I had taken about seven boxes, and they strengthened and made my system splendidly, completely relieving the pain in my head."

There is dire need of something being done to relieve the present state of unemployment in the Crows' Nest Pass. The miners have not been working steadily for some time past and some families are in need of assistance.
